As you know, not all of what is listed here is a fact.

On the Day of Judgement, Allah will decide who speaks during it.

I want to start with this, if you had fulfilled your religious duties on the earth, when you meet Prophet Abraham, Prophet Jesus, or Prophet Muhammad on the Day of Judgement, you will cry to the greatest possible extent knowing that yes you were correct on the earth to promote faith.

On the Day of Judgement, prayer is the best deed by a portion. Pray the five daily prayers, this is crucial. Without prayer, all your deeds will go bad. Knowledge is a portion of the judgement on the Day of Judgement. Good deeds are what the Angels are looking for.

To make this simple, where a believer of any intellect can understand, you will have to explain your rationality to the Angels.

If you are a truthful person, this will help you on the Day of Judgement.

During the Day of Judgement, a horn will be blown and then the Day of Judgement will start. The mountains will be flattened on the Day of Judgement.

The Day of Judgement will not be a day more than 50,000 years.

On the Day of Judgement, there may not be hours off during the day. I cannot confirm there are hours during the Day of Judgement.

My advice is to wait until the Angels are finished talking to respond on the Day of Judgement.

The Day of Judgement will be difficult on many people because they will have no friends assisting them.

There is more reason to believe that people are going to fight to get into Paradise since many in today’s first world countries are researching Islam and considering converting to Islam. This doesn’t seem to be something exclusive to this generation either.

Remember the Prophets were always correct when they were being persecuted. If you claim you were a “persecuted Christian” in America, get ready on the Day of Judgement. You will be audited so seriously by the Angels for a claim like this. You better bring a very good case for the Angels to audit. Make the best case you can for this.

You cannot ever claim life was too difficult to pray given where 2022 is headed. It will not hold up with the Angels on the Day of Judgement.

Everything on the Day of Judgement will be covered. Nothing will be overlooked, missed, or not addressed.

If you don't say something on your mind, you cannot be audited for it. If it is something the Angels do not want to hear, the Angels will not hold you liable for it.

Any injustice you claim, no matter the scale or whether it was an injustice or not; it will be looked into.

What is going to happen is on the Day of Judgement, a portion or maybe 60-100% of humanity will get outraged over the slightest beliefs they have with the Angels before they enter Jannah. For instance, a democrat policy such as raising taxes on the rich 3% more is bad for society and does not produce results, they will get mad. This is also true for a Bible or Quran verse that they disagree with the Angels over what it means. This also includes admitting fault when a person felt they were right on the earth in their judgement with a conflict they had with someone else. We enter Paradise perfect; this means we admit our faults on the earth as did the Prophet Muhammad who prayed to Allah for forgiveness of his sins he had before becoming a Prophet 100 times a day.

People will claim their terrible ideas were only to help you when they had argued with you on the internet and called you names that they wanted you to be democratic when they you would never want to be democratic as if remind you what you already knew would someday get you to vote democratic. Even if their ideas were good, their only goal was to put people down they didn't like, that won't hold up either since you have to invite people to Islam with words of peace. This will not hold up on the Day of Judgement.

So many people on the Day of Judgement will say "I didn't know that was wrong to do." They kept doing it when most people told them to stop. These were the same people with Bible verses that would say that the verses don't matter and that it doesn't apply to them only others.

Everything will be stripped from us on the Day of Judgement. This means no one can have pride on the Day of Judgement. Meanwhile you are wondering where everything that brought you success once was.

For your whole life, you have to accept that Islam has the answers to society since Islam gives us the answers to why we are alive, nobody doubts Islam being right. This is your first mission in life. If you don't believe this, either the Angels will ignore you entirely on the Day of Judgement or they will spend so much time with you and you can try to plea your case. I'm thinking the Angels will give you a chance to explain why you don't feel Islam has the answers. This doesn't change the fact you will get nothing in the Hereafter. Keep in mind, other people on the earth don't matter, they are not Prophets nor Caliphs, when you are told you don't know what you are talking about regardless of what faith they are, you're an adult, if you want to be Muslim, your responsibility is to ignore it entirely since responding never works.

You will be asked on the Day of Judgement do you respect and look up to anyone in the history of the earth more than the Prophets which will be said to the Jews, Christians, and Muslims. This is not something you can fraud where you say, "well yeah of course I do Prophet Muhammad, you're the best".

It will not hold up on the Day of Judgement saying look at my current state, look at how much charity I did in the last three years of my life and how I had all these friends. Your whole life is taken into account.

All these pranksters on YouTube are going to be told that they had videos to uplift people. It will not hold up at all on the Day of Judgement.

During the Day of Judgement, the Angels will separate those who wanted respect and give it to others versus those who wanted praise.

The hypocrites will lie and lie on the Day of Judgement saying that they were only trying to "protect" people from you that you were a threat to society. This is despite the fact they had smirked doing this, they thought it was funny to lie and try to trap you.

The people who were very sensitive on this earth, they may not fail but they will have to explain every word they have said and why they took issue with much of what people say when at times they said "hey man, don't say this man it's offensive". Someone who is very sensitive on this earth, it will not look good on the Day of Judgement. That's a way for your deeds to potentially go null. No, I am not saying this person goes to Hell for it at all. It could look terrible, but I think it won't look good.

Ridwan is the guard of Paradise.

The ones who were not moral on the earth, they won't shut up on the Day of Judgement when the Angels ask them questions, they will yell, argue, potentially scream, and blame everyone else. Yet they were so quiet on this earth and most people got along with them. The Angels will make them quit by force.

So many people on the Day of Judgement will say they cried for God's sake on the earth, it will not hold up.

For many people, they will claim they fought for their happiness on the earth. This will not hold up on the Day of Judgement, they had spent no time trying to help those in need nor did they worship the Lord, they didn't see the need for religion.

There will be people who will lie on the Day of Judgement and say they had to resort to drugs, alcohol, stealing etc. If they claim mental health issues, they will be audited so much for this. They cannot claim they lost hope and in fact they didn't repent for their sins. They didn't think they lost hope at all because if they did, they would go to a local religious center thankful that their hope was restored. To go further, they wanted no part of religion, they wanted therapy instead of religion and left or lied claiming that they were also religious but did not bother to practice at all. Their religion was therapy and going to church was the last thing on their minds.

During the Day of Judgement, it will show who followed their own desires when they wanted to end the US government to fix "climate change", that they didn't know what they were doing as example. There are many examples of people who claimed to have plans for America but had no clue at all and were the same as college liberal arts majors.

When everything and everyone is pulled away from them on the Day of Judgement and they are told they are going to Hell, who are destined for it, they will cry and cry knowing there is nothing to be done and they know what Hell will be like as it is read to them by the Angels. The rest will keep yelling arguing and will be dragged by their feet.

The successful will not have their accolades taken from them on the Day of Judgement; they will be prideful to have talked about the good work they had done for the Lord. The successful will enter, extremely scared. However, once the successful hear they are in a good standing and see on the Angels faces a sense of joy with a slight smile, the successful will barely catch their breath in such amazement but are told by the Angels not to cheer too loud or too long which they will just barely be able to do. From there, all else will go soundly and they will be told to enter Paradise where they will cross the bridge successfully cheering or not, their choice.

If you choose to be mute on the Day of Judgement, at the very least all your deeds will go bad. I am not sure if you can be mute on the Day of Judgement.

Be positive as much as possible, this will go far on the Day of Judgement.

Whenever you claim it was someone else's fault for why a conflict started, the Angels will be auditing you on the Day of Judgement for each time you say this.

You will be asked what your community is on the Day of Judgement. So, if you were a liberal, conservative etc. you will be asked about it.

Anything on the earth can be multiplied by 100,000 in Hell.

Mountains will flatten on the Day of Judgement.

Anyone who claims they were not warned of the Day of Judgement, they will get a look from the Angels like none other.

The bridge's width will decide on how many good deeds someone crossing it has.

The people who have to be washed to enter Paradise after the Day of Judgement will be washed, not one will be missed.

Allah will know everyone's effort they gave to the exact extent. That you were not an immoral person, and you were law abiding, but you didn't care about religion much at all.

If a person sees no meaning to anything, the Angels will explain to the person their incorrect beliefs.

If you talk a big game, Maalik is bigger than you, you've been warned. With the exception to the Prophets, all people of the earth are afraid of Maalik. Not only is Maalik incredibly big, but his yell is also like nothing else. One thing Maalik will not tolerate is when people think they know more than him about justice. Maalik never smiles.

Hell will work on anyone to feel awful because they will yell "stop humiliating me!" All the inmates of Hell will feel the worst shame possible in Hell.

Those in Hell will be starving. There is no food in Hell.

The people who wanted revenge on the earth and cannot find it in the Hereafter, what will happen is they will be judged. To the ones who get in they will have to push and shove to get into Paradise. Once they are in paradise, they will laugh at those in Hell with people they fought revenge on provided the people they sought revenge on didn't go to Hell.

The people who are going to Hell are going to feel so horrible inside that no horrible feeling on this earth could possibly come close to matching it.

If you have any social media account whether you are viral or not, when you share religion or history, do your absolute best to get it right within reason since none of us are perfect.

Another thing with a social media account, make sure it is positive or at least when you debate someone, make sure it is done in a fair manner without insults.

What may happen is that the believers will have to go through 50,000 years of judgement on the Day of Judgement. Afterwards, they will laugh at those in Hell.

Do not post anything as a joke about Islam on your social media, be wise here.

Any content you posted on social media whether positive, negative, informative, joking around, you will be asked about on the Day of Judgement in full and you will answer for every single post ever made.

Do not mock other religious people, unless you want to be judged for it, I don't recommend it. You can absolutely criticize what they do. What you can also do is laugh and say, "why would God ever allow for the Messiah to be crucified haha", you can decide if you want to do that or not.

Repent for all your sins, if possible, I am sure this will help on the Day of Judgement to what degree I don't know.

Whatever you spend your money on, it will be taken into account no matter how small of a donation it was. If it was done for a political cause, I don't think it would be listed as good deeds though I am not sure of this. With food provided it isn't takeout; you should be set. With clothes, if you buy fair-cost clothes and not too many of them, you should be set.

Do not travel except to Palestine, Yemen, Mecca, and Medina. This is in your best interest. If you did travel anywhere, be honest on the Day of Judgement. Do not claim that it was for "religious studies" or "philanthropy." This will not hold up at all. You could say in truth "part of it was for religious studies", that should help your case, I would think.

You may watch any content you want; you won't be judged for it. You will still be asked what you did with your time, that means any Google search you did will be asked about.

Many people who were religious centuries ago of different eras will insist on different religious material that was taught to them during that era on the Day of Judgment.

If things go south and you are ruined, you had better make the best case you possibly could so that you were not responsible, you didn't deserve what had happened to you, you did what was in your best interest, you had learned from your mistakes as to why you didn't pray afterwards. Perhaps the Angels may listen to you on the Day of Judgment, you will be heard for the injustice you claim, that doesn't mean it will be accepted.

You will not get into Paradise until you love all the Prophets, and you have accepted all of scripture in its infallibility.

If you claim a mental illness, you will be audited so severely. If a psychiatrist diagnosed you with one, and the rest of your life you didn't have a meltdown, it would be in your best interest for you to claim you never had one that the psychiatrist made a mistake. If you felt you were mentally ill on this earth and you didn't seek help or put little effort in to fix your problems, the Angels will know in full.

Any lie you have ever said regardless of the scale will be brought up on the Day of Judgement.

Even the slightest act of charity, the smallest kind word you could say will be brought up on the Day of Judgement.

If you love to meet Allah, then Allah will love to meet you. If you don't want to meet Allah, then Allah will not want to talk to you at all.

If you went to college to party and not to study where you stayed extra years because you didn't want to complete your degree on time, the Angels will know, you will be asked about it on the Day of Judgement.

If you collected food stamps where the government gives them out to anyone I believe where one lady who dressed well at the grocery store, I worked at used them, you will be audited for this, a guarantee.

Do not claim on the Day of Judgement that pot was used medically for you, this will not hold up.

If you smoked cigarettes, each cigarette the Angels will ask you about, since cigarettes take days off your life.

The hypocrites will be at the lowest depths of Hell, this is far below the earth. They will have no helper, that means they cannot cry to God for help. No feeling on the earth could match this level of Hell.

On the Day of Judgement, you will worry nonstop until the Angels read your deeds and if your deeds are sound.

If you took part in talking someone out of religion, on the Day of Judgement it will look horrible for you.

If you told a child that they are not good enough and they will not reach their dreams, I worry so much for you on the Day of Judgement.

If you followed your own desires on purpose with religious interpretation, on the day of judgement the least that will happen to you is your deeds will go bad.

The Angels will explain the entire interpretation of the Quran and will give you the entire interpretation of the Bible in its infallibility. What you had correctly interpreted, the Angels will tell you. What you got wrong they will fix, and they will not waste time debating verses interpretation with you. You will be accepting exactly what is given to you.

The Angels will know exactly why you are religious and what reason or reasons for being such. Also, why you had chosen for instance Christianity or Islam. The Angels will know exactly what your goals were being religious.

If you drove under the influence of alcohol whether you were caught or not, depending on your blood alcohol level, it will look very bad for you.

On the Day of Judgement, you can claim that you were wealthy to try to get people to convert to Islam. That won't help your case at all. The money could have gone to charity instead or helping to build Mosques. That's faking being sincere claiming that you are showing off the life when you don't even pray daily. In fact, the Quran speaks against the worldly life, you're living the worldly life.

Any video you recorded where you uploaded to the internet will be audited.

Inmates of Hell will forget every joy they had on the earth within seconds worth of being in it.

If you fought for Allah's cause and died, you will enter in without judgement.

Remember, maturity on the Day of Judgement. Have confidence and be ready for any possible question.

All the status updates at work or at a local restaurant what you mentioned to describe the event will be audited on the Day of Judgement.

Claiming you were brainwashed; it will not hold up. Only some meaning like 2% at most throughout history were truly brainwashed I believe.

To enter Paradise, you must accept every historical fact, you are not allowed to debate it.

Those in Hell, their accomplishments, their status on this earth means nothing and does nothing to make them feel better inside. All they can feel is physical and emotional pain that causes them to not feel any sort of self-worth. This means they feel much lower than anyone has ever felt on the earth.

If you say one country's Sharia Law is right and one country's Sharia Law is wrong, you will be audited.

On the Day of Judgement, you will be asked why you chose a certain denomination for your religious beliefs.

If someone were to put money towards catholicism, wahhabism, freemasonry, I have no clue how it is judged.

Inmates of Hell will be chained and shackled.

The Angels have heard and know it all. Something necessary to remember on the Day of Judgement.

The Angels will know who wants to resolve issues and who just wants to degrade others who disagree with them.

What you die doing, you will be raised on the Day of Judgement doing that action such as being in prostration.

I don't know what role the good and neutral jinn play in Hell. They may not even be in Hell servicing the Lord, it may be all done by the Angels where the good and neutral jinn are laughing in Paradise watching the inmates. I would think the good and neutral jinn will service the Lord in Hell. The evil jinn however will be burning in Hell.

Hell will be embarrassing to the point where all inhabitants will be shamed by it that they would never want to mention their humiliation there to you ever.

When someone claims they are in the right to say or do something in the public found to be immoral, they will be judged for doing such.

On the day when those are in Hell, they will be laughed at by those in Paradise. Those in Paradise will be superior in every way, shape and form. Those in Paradise will be perfect without criticism. Those in Hell will be laughed at being the lowest of low, they will be calling on those in Paradise to get them out of Hell.

If someone were to put money towards catholicism, wahhabism, freemasonry, I have no clue how it is judged.

Inmates of Hell will be chained and shackled.

The Angels have heard and know it all. Something necessary to remember on the Day of Judgement.

The Angels will know who wants to resolve issues and who just wants to degrade others who disagree with them.

What you die doing, you will be raised on the Day of Judgement doing that action such as being in prostration.

I don’t know what role the good and neutral jinn play in Hell. They may not even be in Hell servicing the Lord, it may be all done by the Angels where the good and neutral jinn are laughing in Paradise watching the inmates. I would think the good and neutral jinn will service the Lord in Hell. The evil jinn however will be burning in Hell.

There will be shame for all inmates in Hell.

Hell will be embarrassing to the point where all inhabitants will never want to mention their humiliation in Hell.

The Angels will know who is fake.

Many people look at status so much they forget that justice will be served on the Day of Judgement. They overlook what went on.

Whatever you know, be it anything such as conservatism or how to drive a build something of value, the Angels know it better than you. The Angels know every detail. The Angels will outsmart you at your own craft.

The Angels possess knowledge you do not have. The Angels have more knowledge than you on matters you know very well. I cannot stress this enough.

The Angels are masters of debate.

The Angels are precise, accurate, and they will never raise their voice at you. These are a few details about how they will approach you. Their presence will catch you off guard.

If you disrespect the Angels, they may very well leave on sight. Most likely, your deeds will be null as a result.

Things will happen fast on Judgement Day. Those who are determined and focused will be consistent with their deeds and actions.

If you were scrolling on your phone while others are working, you will most likely be held accountable on the Day of Judgement. Any job where you did less work, the work done will be taken into account.

Allah will see exactly what you believed on the earth. This is important.

The Angels will know who use knowledge for the sole purpose of condemning others.

There will be people on the Day of Judgement who come with the most ridiculous claims such as it is not theft to steal clothes at a store under the claim that theft means stealing something of a high value.

So many people will hear from the Angels that they are not as amazing as they thought they were. We don't know what percentage will be relieved that they are going to Paradise but not at the top layer.

On the Day of Judgement, the Angels will know everything to every small detail for any personal conflict that emerged.

You will be audited for every belief you hold no matter what the scale of it.

If you lied for anything no matter how small of a lie, you will be audited for it.

Every insult possible will be said to the inhabitants of Hell.

Those who were not fair to people on the earth, they will argue they were fair but not to people who they claim are not fair people which would be all but their friends. This tactic they will try will not work on the Angels no matter what.

Once everything is taken away from you on the Day of Judgement, it will be returned to you when you enter Paradise provided you are successful on the Day of Judgement.

Those who didn't worship will be raised blind on the Day of Judgement.

Whoever was your religious teacher will be audited on the Day of Judgement. It will be brought up how much you had learned from him.

Every single person will claim they had suffering on the earth on the Day of Judgement. I have no clue whose suffering will be validated by the Angels and who didn't go through suffering at all. I believe it will be all or nothing, either people went through suffering, or they didn't at all. I am not sure what will happen to those who did not suffer in the world. Those who did suffer and whose good deeds are higher than their bad deeds will enter Paradise.

If someone desires to go to Paradise, they will have to repent for all their sins first to get into Paradise on the Day of Judgement. If not, they will not be allowed in.

What I think will happen on the Day of Judgement is that a male Angel will be assigned to us males. Female Angels will be assigned to females.

The Angels will know on the Day of Judgement at what point someone came to their senses and why they joined religion. For example, someone may have converted to Islam much later when Prophet Muhammad started winning the battles he fought. This will be taken into account. This would also apply if someone became religious later on in life because it was trending, and their friends were a part of it. How it is viewed, we don't know.

If you claim scripture does not work to get someone to excel in life, you will get such a look on the Day of Judgement from the Angels.

To get into Paradise, you may have to worship one time as a minimum requirement to get in if you did not on the earth.

Those who fought against Islam, they will not testify Prophet Muhammad is Allah's Final Messenger on the Day of Judgement, they will act as if it is impossible, despite the fact they thought it was possible.

The Angels on the Day of Judgement may have their own responses to what you tell them. Something not heard of ever in history that we humans are not familiar with. We know that Gabriel the Angel does talk one way in the Quran that we humans understand very well. That does not mean they will talk to us this way.

Every human will speak in Arabic to the Angels on the Day of Judgement. Or the Angels will speak to us in the language we speak. Or the Angels will hear us speak our language and then the Angels will response in Arabic, but we will hear it as the language we speak. We know the Angels know all languages. I highly doubt every human will speak in Arabic on the Day of Judgement.

Whatever terminology you used, whatever you had intended to tell someone when you told someone in any circumstance, tell the Angels the truth on the Day of Judgement.

To enter Paradise, you must be a patriarch.

I believe Angel's value every environment at any time as part of your test. I believe this because in Islam, your previous sins are forgiven when you accept the message which is saying that the Angels acknowledge that the environment you are in can be terrible.

If you took a stand for your faith, it will look excellent on the Day of Judgement.

On the Day of Judgement, tell the Angels you had a spine on the earth.

There is no light in Hell, the only light will come from Paradise as those in Paradise will watch the inmates of Hell suffer.

Increase your memory on the earth by reading more, this will go further for you on the Day of Judgement having a higher memory.

Women may or may not form most of Hells inhabitants after the Day of Judgement. What I can confirm is that there will be much more males with higher degrees of Hell than women in Hell.

Most will claim they were “oppressed” on the earth during the Day of Judgement. For many to potentially most, their claim will not hold up.

On the Day of Judgement, tell the Angels that you made your religious beliefs equal to your political beliefs or that you put your religious beliefs ahead of your religious beliefs.

Prophets Jesus and Muhammad will advocate to the Angels for those who have been elected by Allah. I’m not sure if other Prophets will such as Prophets Noah, Abraham, and Moses. I have no clue the process of it, I would think it would be a few quick sentences said by the Prophet chosen to advocate for the elected. Prophets Jesus and Muhammad may only say a few good words to the Angels or may say many different good things about a person who was elected. If a Prophet does such for you, this a great sign for you.

I don’t know if Angels write down everything we say as our good deeds and bad deeds not what we say unless if it is something good or bad, we had said to someone. I do know that the Angels write everything down we say.

Those who paid taxes in a country, the money may be counted as charity in 2023 given how much of it goes to Social Security that they will not be able to collect. I am not certain about this.

Tell the Angels you wanted a world of justice.

What I think will happen is each generation will be judged based on what they believe. For instance, a soldier in WWII will not be liable for what America is in 2023 as the soldier did not believe in how America is run today in 2023.

What everyone believes will be separate from their good deeds.

Beliefs will not give someone good deeds on the Day of Judgement. For instance, being Muslim is not a good deed. Praying is a good deed. The same applies to a conservative. Being a conservative is not a good deed. Doing good deeds through a conservative group will be deemed a good deed.

Your experiences, whether positive or negative, will not be remembered on this day, meaning they will be forgotten as if they never happened. The experiences that are good deeds and bad deeds will be remembered and will be brought up. You will have full recollection of each memory brough up by the Angels on the Day of Judgement. Your full focus will be being judged, nothing else.

Everything will be pitch black on the Day of Judgement. You will see countless people in front of you, but you won't look behind you. What will happen is an Angel will emerge to either your right or left and begin to talk to you after the Angel greets you. I believe there will be one Angel, not two. There will not be more than two Angels that judge everyone, unless if the person's righteousness has succeeded at the highest of high there may be many for him or her.

I personally believe every generation is judged equally through its generation; I could be wrong on this though.

The Angels will know who only wanted to type behind a screen to insult religions where these people made no attempt to help those in poverty. These people will claim their main goal is to "help further the ummah" but have done no such charity, they will fail on the Day of Judgement. If they had claimed to be an imam, it will get worse for them.

Tell the Angels on the Day of Judgement that justice was a priority for you on this earth.

One the Day of Judgement, if you claimed that someone was bad at a job or you claimed someone was not intelligent, if you respond with, "I couldn't help them with that", you will get a look from the Angels on the Day of Judgement for casting off a claim you had made.

On the Day of Judgement, if you claimed someone was bad at a job or you claimed someone was not intelligent, if you respond with, "I couldn't help them with that" you will get a look from the Angels on the Day of Judgment for casting off a claim you had made.

If you pried on vulnerable people with claims that are not true that you yourself do not believe, there is a good chance you will go to Hell for it depending on what you had said or done. I am not sure of the severity of it.

Make sure you come to the Day of Judgement with your best understanding of religion. This is so valuable.

What you can claim on the Day of Judgement is that you interpreted religion solely by what went on in religious centers and that's what taught you religion. That would mean no other area applies to your understanding of faith.

Any review you left for a place for entertainment will be audited.

The Angels are between 5’5 and 6’0 or 6’2. They are well built, they are beautiful unlike anything you have ever seen before, they may conceal their face from you. This can be expected when you meet them on the Day of Judgement.

The Angels are Arabian, they have either white or tan skin. There could be Angels that could resemble those of different continents.

The “social media influencers” will be given so much auditing.

Many people will claim a mental illness on the Day of Judgement.

Whatever you know about technology, the Angels know that much more about technology.

People whose deeds are sound where their good deeds outweigh their bad deeds, they will be cheering crying after the Angels announce they are going to Paradise.

Stay on one subject when the Angels are auditing you.

Tell the Angels that you wanted a hierarchy on the earth.

The Angels will know on the Day of Judgement the believers who would pick up the Prophets if they were down.

If you called someone a racist on this earth, be prepared for so much auditing.

There will be many people on the Day of Judgement who don’t know how to ask for the top layer of Paradise having such little knowledge of scripture.

You may have to live the experience of a Muslim of the 7th century before entering Paradise. If you were a believer of an Abrahamic faith on this earth, it may qualify.

Anytime you had made mention of religion, it will be brought up on the Day of Judgement.

Whatever approach you bring to the Angels is up to you.

What you have to do is show the Angels that you stuck by faith during times that were tough. As you already know, you don’t have to show the Angels you held onto faith when times were easy, so that will not be brought up on the Day of Judgement.

Since most of our sins are with our tongues and private parts, the Angels are clearly writing down what we say to an extent because Angels record all sins.

What you will be audited for is if you wish for your brother what you wish for yourself. This could be easy, or it could be very time-consuming being judged for it. I think it will be easy.

I recommend that you tell the Angels on the Day of Judgement that you had the solutions to most of the world’s faults and that your solutions would work. You can choose to tell the Angels you did not have ideas that would fix the current world's problems. Whatever route you take, I understand.

The mental pain may be much more severe than the physical pain in Hell.

The Angels have mastered all forms of expression such as being down to earth, sarcasm, friendly, direct as examples. They are keen like none other.

Keep going forward in the conversation you have with the Angels. Don’t talk about what was previously discussed.

If Angels keep asking question after question, stay on point.

When you see believers succeeding on the Day of Judgement, don’t put thought into it, focus on the conversation you are having with Angels.

What you can do on the Day of Judgement is give the Angels every detail you can about what is discussed with your actions by the Angels. I don’t recommend doing this.

Tell the Angels you read scripture literal. I would think this will be brought up.

Memorize as much scripture for the day of judgement.

Avoid making any complaint in general on the day of judgement.

It is possible that every single purchase you have made will be brought up on the Day of Judgement. For certain, some purchases will be brought up.

If you believe on the earth that people were put on the earth to service you alone, the Day of Judgement will go bad for you.

The Angels want to hear your stories on the Day of Judgement. The Angels will listen to you, I promise this.

If the Angels agree with what you are saying, each conversation will get better and better with them. If done right, you will impress the Angels.

On the Day of Judgement, I believe the Angels will ask for your current state how you handled something. This will be a short conversation. The purpose of this is to make sure you have your side of the story heard.

If you left faith at any point in your life, tell the Angels you had reached your breaking point at that point in your life.

In Hell, the same noises that will make your eardrums break may be looped over and over again.

Whatever you denounced on the earth, it will either be very good for you or be bad for you on the Day of Judgement.

I'm not certain if arguments brought up between you and your wife will be brought up on the Day of Judgement. I would think not.

On the Day of Judgement, I would think every time you were treated as a professional on this earth, you will be compensated for such.

What may happen is on the Day of Judgement, many could be stressed out, you need to stay focused with the Angels that are talking to you.

The more traits you possess in your life, the better it will be for you on the Day of Judgement. Even minor traits that you didn't use to benefit others on the earth, it will help you on the Day of Judgement.

What may happen is the Day of Judgement is that we knew some of what we had anticipated for. I am starting to believe it.

Once the bridge comes on the Day of Judgement, get ready for people pushing, kicking, and yelling to get in Paradise.

Paradise is not for someone who enjoys complaining and bossing people around for tasks where someone takes leadership that people don't want.

Ironically many people have to be washed in the fountain which they will be after the Day of Judgement is done because Paradise is not the place they want to go in any way. Where no matter what is offered to them, they don't want it, their only focus was not caring on the earth. They were neither good people nor bad, they just didn't care.

The Israelites during the Prophets time and during Ancient Israel will most likely have to go through more serious auditing than us who did not live during that time.

Tell the Angels you would not add or subtract to Allah's scripture.

Without a doubt, it will be brought up which country and which time you taught religion in.

The Day of Judgement will be very bad for if you believe people were put on the earth to be used by you.

In Hell, the heat of the fires may be turned up higher and higher. The screams of the inhabitants of Hell may become louder and louder.

Any posts and comments posted on the internet will be audited. I would think the posts and comments on the internet that received others response be it positive or not received well will be audited more. As you already know by now, this can be a good thing, or a bad thing for you on the Day of Judgement.

Kind of obvious here that there will be no strip clubs in Paradise. No other man can share a woman with you, that includes your male friends to share a woman. You can have a strip club of your own, only you are welcome in it where it only consists of your wives and the houri. This is proof there will be laws in Paradise.

There will be no tattoos in Paradise.

The Angels will look mainly for what you contributed towards religion.

If you lived in poverty on the earth, this will be a positive factor for you on Day of Judgement.

Tell the Angels that Islam honors both men and women.

You will have to show the Angels you respected believers on the earth. How you treated those who do not believe can help your case.

Tell the Angels you wanted the Ummah to prosper.

Show the Angels on the Day of Judgement that the Prophets followed religious law citing scripture.

If you had cleared a religious person’s debt on the earth, it will help a lot on the Day of Judgement.

Tell the Angels you held your faith in high reverence.

Show the Angels that you spoke highly of the Prophets, the leaders, and the those who gave to Islam.

Tell the Angels you had left your shift at your jobs when the job was finished.

The Black Stone will come on the Day of Judgement with two eyes and a tongue that will speak for whoever kissed it on the Day of Judgement.

Tell the Angels that Islam told you what you wanted to hear.

If someone had said something for moral superiority claiming what a country did was wrong with a war, it will be shown on the Day of Judgement.

You will have to show the Angels that you tell the truth when it is needed.

You will have to show the Angels that you are an accountable person.

To enter Paradise, you will need to know all knowledge of all history.

If you were consistent with your speech to a good degree, that will go far on the Day of Judgement.

On the Day of Judgement, you testified to the truth on the earth being in an Abrahamic religion.

If you were consistent in your speech to a good degree, that will go far on the Day of Judgement.

The best thing you can do when speaking to the Angels is to keep it simple.

What will probably happen is the Angels will start with simple dialogue, then later on the Angels will test you.

You can answer with “I don’t know” on the Day of Judgement.

Show the Angels that you did schoolwork.

Consistent good deeds are what the Angels are looking for the most on the Day of Judgement.

If you have tattoos, those will count as bad deeds on the Day of Judgement. If you had tattoos removed, that could nullify the bad deeds you had gotten from getting them.

Tell the Angels you respect women.

You will get upset on the Day of Judgement. It will not be held against you.

Each time you prayed in a Mosque, it is worth 23 times the amount of a prayer.

You can say on the Day of Judgement “I don’t want to talk about it” to the Angels.

You are allowed to explain to the Angels that religion was solely about you on the earth if that was you. If you had done your religious requirements, then there shouldn’t be an issue if you were that on the earth.

If an issue emerged that you tried to resolve, you will be asked about it.

If you love Surah Al Ikhlas 112, that is a route to Paradise.

What will happen for many on the Day of Judgement is that when the Angels are insulted, it will not affect them in the slightest.

On the Day of Judgement, you will need to tell the Angels, “God knows best.”

If you married a Jew, Christian, or a Muslim woman who was religious before she married you, that will qualify for marrying for your religious beliefs on the Day of Judgement. This will be good for you on the Day of Judgement.

If you tell Allah that there was an injustice against you on the earth when you meet him, I doubt Allah will listen to it.

Some people will be so out there on the Day of Judgement that they will say “motivational quotes” from celebrities like Dwayne Johnson claiming that his quotes are Bible verses when asked by the Angels if they knew any Bible verses by heart. They will also use song lyrics thinking they are Bible verses smiling thinking they are correct. They will forget Bible verses that can easily be found on Google Images.

Part of the reason why Allah won’t allow us to advocate for someone on the Day of Judgement is because everyone will advocate for someone on the Day of Judgement.

There will be people on the Day of Judgement that lie and say they didn’t believe in religion. Yet they had believed in a false god that didn’t have practices such as fasting, prayer, and charity etc.

Show the Angels that you want to know every verse and its meaning from Genesis to the end of the Quran.

You will hear some people make the most absurd claims for scripture when their actions were off.

Be sure not to talk over the Angels, let the Angels finish speaking when they address what the Angels discuss with you.

Avoid being pompous on the Day of Judgement.

Those who backbite will not enter Paradise.

Those who did not beg once on earth will enter Paradise.

If you restrained your anger on earth, you will enter Paradise.

If you observed Asr and Fajr prayers, you will enter Paradise.

You will enter Paradise if you went mornings and afternoons to a Mosque.

If two or more testify that you were pious on earth, you will enter Paradise.

Hajj guarantees you will go to Paradise.

Make the greeting common and give food to the poor to enter Paradise.

Those who issued taxes without means will not go to Paradise.

A dishonest judge will not enter Paradise.

Those who are addicted to wine will not enter Paradise.

Those who disrespected their parents on earth may not enter Paradise.

Those who misused their authority over others will not enter Paradise.

Those who claimed someone was their father when they were not will not enter Paradise.

If you wrote a will, you will enter Paradise.

If your last words are “there is no God but God”, you will enter Paradise.

Those who were patient while suffering will enter Paradise.

Say the hadith Mishkat Al-Masabih 675 during prayer to enter Paradise.

Those who obeyed Prophet Muhammad on the earth will enter Paradise.

Those who disobeyed Prophet Muhammad on the earth will enter Hell.

A way to enter Paradise is to love Surat Al-Ikhlas 112.

If your last words are “la ilaha illallah”, you will enter Paradise.

A way to enter Paradise is to pray for the sick.

If you die knowing there is one God, you will enter Paradise.

You may enter Paradise because you did not kill someone.

If you sought knowledge on the earth, you are guaranteed Paradise. The Angels will honor you for this when you enter Paradise.

Fatimah is the chief of women in Paradise.

Hasan and Husain are the chief of the youth in Paradise.

The poor will enter Paradise 500 years before the rich.

If you are free of pride, you will enter Paradise.

If you had your possessions stolen during a war, you will enter Paradise.

If you are free of debt on the earth, you will enter Paradise.

Picking up branches on the side of the road is a way to enter Paradise.

The gates of Paradise are open Monday and Thursday.

If a woman did not have a reason to divorce her husband that was serious enough, she will not enter Paradise.

You are guaranteed Paradise if you say, “I am pleased with Allah as Lord, with Islam as religion and Muhammad as Apostle.”

Paradise is guaranteed for those who fight wars for their faith alone.

Those who are drunkards will not enter Paradise.

Those who remind people of favors they give them will not enter Paradise.

Someone who was praised by those who went to his or her funeral will enter Paradise.

Five daily prayers guarantees Paradise.

The more you pray, the more you will be with Prophet Muhammad in Paradise.

Humility is a trait of Paradise.

If you memorized the Quran on the earth, you will be with scribes in Paradise. You will get double the reward for memorizing the Quran.

Paradise is under the shade of swords to enter.

There are eight gates in Paradise.

Allah will call for the tyrants and arrogant on the Day of Judgement.

If a man kills someone who entrusted him with his health, the man who killed the person will carry a banner of treachery on the Day of Judgement.

Allah will ask a believer who didn’t denounce corruption why he chose not to. The believer will say he did not advocate for justice because he feared the public on the Day of Judgement.

One man from the Ummah will be given the 99 scrolls on the Day of Judgement. He will talk to our Lord, then will be given a card, he will then say Shahada.

The Prophets will be judged first, then the scholars, then the martyrs on the Day of Judgement.

A man who hit his wife will not be asked about it on the Day of Judgement.

The first food that will be eaten in Paradise will be liver.

If someone tells a lie about a dream they had, they will have to tie a grain of barley on the Day of Judgement.

Allah will label those who claimed to have fought for his cause and didn't as liars on the Day of Judgement. Those who are labeled as liars by Allah will be dragged by their face and thrown into Hell.

Your parents will be given a crown on the Day of Judgement if you recited and lived by the Quran.

If you stole inheritance from someone on the earth, Allah will take your inheritance on the Day of Judgement.

If you separated a mother from her child, Allah will separate you from your friends on the Day of Judgement.

If a Muslim man intimidates a Muslim man he knows, Allah will intimate him on the Day of Judgement.

Deceitful people will be treated differently on the Day of Judgement.

If we do wear clothes on the Day of Judgement, our clothing will be humble.

If you grew gray hair on the earth, this will be positive for you on the Day of Judgement.

Whoever beat a slave unjustly on the earth will be beaten by the slave who he beat unjustly on the Day of Judgement.

Anyone who showed mercy to an animal that was about to be slaughtered on the earth will be shown mercy on the Day of Judgement.

An injustice will appear as darkness on the Day of Judgement.

Those who took land unjustly will be strangled by the land they took unjustly on the earth on the Day of Judgement.

Any man who had multiple wives and favored one over the other on the earth will have their body inclining on the Day of Judgement.

A great liars face will be carried away until it reaches the horizons when he tells a lie until the Day of Judgement.

The least punishment in Hell is wearing shoes that are on fire that will boil the inhabitant's brain.

Whoever calls others to Islam will receive an equal reward for any good deed they called to Islam does.

We will be asked what we knew about Prophet Muhammad on the Day of Judgement.

The people who go Paradise will receive the wealth of those on the earth who go to Hell.

Those who go to Hell will receive the sins of those who entered Paradise.

Whatever money you contributed towards a religious center will be brought up on the Day of Judgement.

You will hear people that will claim they set rules that did not apply to them saying they “didn’t want problems to occur” when they knew the rules they had set would cause trouble on the Day of Judgement.

Those who had a shootout will go to Hell for it if someone died from it.

I am nearly certain that a copy of some of a version of the Bible we have today and a copy of the version of the Quran with the translator you had used will be present during the Day of Judgement. The Angels will use these versions when your actions or speech applied to them on the earth. The versions of the Bible we have today, and the Quran can be used yourself to reference your speech and actions. These versions will be present during the entire Day of Judgement.

Those who fall through the bridge to Paradise will be so devastated they scream on the Day of Judgement.

Since the Day of Judgement is 50,000 years, it will be so long with so much auditing from the Angels.

If you speak good of Prophet Muhammad, he will speak good of you on the Day of Judgement. I promise this.

On the Day of Judgement, you will be asked why you work the jobs you had worked in your life. Give a good answer as to why you had worked the job. Above all else, be honest with the response you give to the Angels.

On the Day of Judgement, you will be asked why you work the jobs you had worked in your life. Give a solid answer as to why you had worked the job. Above all else, be honest with the response you give to the Angels.

On the Day of Judgement, there will be some people who will say if there were 12 daily prayers instead of 5 daily prayers, then they would believe Islam is a fact as example. The irony here being there was a hadith where Prophet Moses said to Prophet Muhammad that he requested 50 daily prayers for the Israelites.

Take as much time as you want before responding to the Angels when the Angels ask you a question on the Day of Judgement.

If someone claims their activism was to serve the public, this will not hold up on the Day of Judgement.

On the Day of Judgement, some people will get too angry when everything is taken away from them where they will not be able to be judged causing them to fail before judgement even started.

In most instances, if someone left religion and did not return to faith in their life, their deeds will go bad.

There were tens of millions of Jews throughout history. There were billions of Christians throughout history. There were billions of Muslims throughout history. This is important because Rabbinical Hebrew is a lost language. With Biblical Hebrew, the public only knows so much about. The false gospel is in Greek, the Greek language is easily translated to other languages. The Quran is in Arabic, the Arabic language is easily translated to other languages. This means on the Day of Judgement, most who are judged knew their holy book.

Communism and socialism only lasted in Europe for 74 years. If communism and socialism lasted all throughout history, there would be no Day of Judgement because everyone had earned and spent the same. On the Day of Judgement, something major we are judged for is what we did with our spending money.

During the Day of Judgement, most politicians and celebrities in countries such as America will say to the Angels “I had a fanbase that had one of the most followers, I entertained many Abrahamic people, I paid in charity to communities.” None of what they had done on the earth will do them any good on the Day of Judgement. They will get upset or very angry.

A minimum of 70,000 people will not be judged on the Day of Judgement.

Those who are in a coma and the mentally insane will enter Paradise without judgement.

Many of the “philosophers” you see on the internet will play dumb on the Day of Judgement when they tell the Angels they could not understand the Quran.

Many on today’s earth say they go by “logic”, they will be explaining this to the Angels.

There will be some who will not be able to argue with the Angels, they will go right to Hell before their bad deeds are listed.

There are over 45,000 Christian denominations. A Christian will have to tell the Angels their Christian denomination on the Day of Judgement.

Be sure to tell the Angels you had read contracts you had signed on the earth.

Whoever restrains his anger when he is able to implement it, Allah will call him before all people on the Day of Judgement and will give him the choice of any houri he wants.

Some advice I have is to be humble on the Day of Judgement. Tell the Angels you are appreciative that you are being judged by them. Or you can be confident. Your choice.

When you had gossiped, it was written down by the Angels. Tell the Angels you had gossiped at a low level.

Whoever had oppressed someone may be begging the person to forgive them on the Day of Judgement. Their deeds could become nullified. If the person has no good deeds, that person's sins will become his on the Day of Judgement.

Many of any status in a country are going to have reactions on the Day of Judgement where they had over five thousand tweets. What will probably happen is they will be asked about one tweet after another that they had posted.

There will be not one injustice on the Day of Judgement.

On the Day of Judgement, you will hear many people say, "that was an off day for me."

Many in recent generations will have reactions when they learn that becoming a Christian or Muslim does not mean their life before becoming Christian or Muslim will be brought up on the Day of Judmgent.

On the Day of Judgement, many people will be surprised at who is elevated to the highest rank of Paradise and who isn't.

On the Day of Judgement, Allah will tell the believers, "Now you have come back to us just as We created you in the beginning."

On the Day of Judgement, those who deeds are on their left hand will go to Hell.

On the Day of Judgement, those whose deeds are on their right hand will go to Paradise.

The inmates of Hell may be in a state where they cannot move.

You will see many on the Day of Judgement who will say “it benefited others by funding that program” when it didn’t.

What you can do before the Day of Judgement begins is thank the Angels for spending the time with you.

The insults the people of Paradise will say to those in Hell will be awful. The people in Paradise will laugh at those in Hell.

Tell the Angels you refrained from arguing with Jews and Christians on the Day of Judgement.

You will see people get angry at the Angels and fail on the Day of Judgement.

There will be jinn that are shackled in Hell.

When the inmates in Hell are being tortured and they fall, they will be picked back up by the Angels. When they are picked back up by the Angels, they will be tortured again.

There will be people who will say they were the first to denounce a conflict when they had made little to no effort to. A recent example being the conflict in Gaza.

You will see people on the Day of Judgement who had rarely if ever practiced religion claim to be religious. They will try to discuss religion with the Angels for hours. You will also see people try to drag conversations out with Angels about religion when they know little about religion.

There will be many social media influencers who will think they get a reward for having fan bases on the Day of Judgement. There won’t be a reward for them for their fan bases on the Day of Judgement.

Taqiyya is a Shia concept; but some Muslims will claim otherwise on the Day of Judgement.

On the Day of Judgement, you can make mention of your favorite saints or scholars.

Those who fasted on the earth will enter through the gate called Ar-Raiyan into Paradise on the Day of Judgement. Only those who fasted will enter through this gate to Paradise.

On the Day of Judgement, most if not all Christians will have to explain why they believe Jesus is “god” to the Angels.

Those who gain religious knowledge for wealth will not enter Paradise.

On the Day of Judgement, the Heavens will separate. Also, the Heavens will catch on fire.

Tell the Angels the book order of the Bible we have today if you remember the book order of the Bible we have today.

Satan will be sent to Hell.

Prophet Abraham will be clothed first on the Day of Judgement

The Angel Phanuel has a part in those who go to Paradise.